DEDICATION

Eileen Flynn, Class Advisor

The class of 1994 would like to dedicate this book to their class advisor, Mrs. Eileen Flynn. This lovely lady took 114 kids when they were freshmen and helped them for four years to be young adults. For four years she has always been there to make our memories of Grafton High live on forever. Without her the class of 1994 does not know where they would be. Mrs. Flynn, we would like to express our deepest gratitude to you, as we venture off into the future.

PARTING

A verse from us to you
by Mrs. Julian

On the sandy shores of the Ripple
By the shining blue waters
Stands the lovely Grafton High School —
It's the alma that really matters.

Ray and Peter guide your footsteps
Through the Groves of Academe
Where the days and months and years just Pass before you like a dream

You have been here four long years,
Four long years of toil and strife.
We will miss you when you go —
Out the door and into life.

How will you remember faces,
Names and faces to be missed,
Without having on your person,
This quite lengthy little list?

Harry with his aspidistra,
Pat Kasierski, Richard C., Geoffrey Schoos and Jimmy Pig and Jan who says, "Bien, merci."

Judy, Eileen, Keary, Ann and Marge and Marion with their books;
Carol, Dotty, Jane, and Patty —
They're the High Schools finest cooks.

Charlie, Cathy, Mary Sherman,
Maureen Cimocho, Jean, and me,
Donald, Bergie, Chuck and Bette,
Barb and Peter Henessey.

Sharyn, Paula, John Tite, Gary,
Laura, Betsy, Jack Libera,
Gerry, Jen and John Caputo —
We will miss you when you leave.

Marie DiDonna, Joyce LaBonte,
Sue Milewski, Richard E.
Guided you; and Vicki Cox
Who helped you sail through troubled seas.

Jack Libera, Betsy Langas,
Lorie, Gerry, Betsey B.,
Fran and Bob and Steve and Paula,
Connie bandaged broken knees.

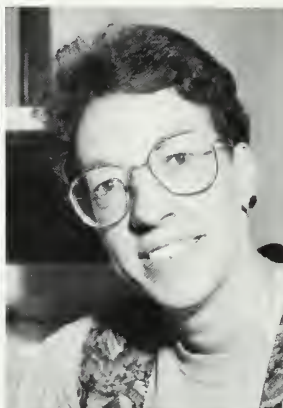

For Lynne you sang; for Steve you wrote,
Nancy helped out where she could;
And in the office solving problems
Joan and Dot were really good.

We have taught you, nagged and prodded,
Coached and praised and counseled you.
Parting saddens as the Bard says;
So we'll simply say, "Adieu."

Class of 1996: SOPHOMORE SENSATION

"Halfway There"

Although the class of 1996 has only been in Grafton High for two years, we feel we have accomplished a lot. With the excellent leadership of our class officers — President Scott MacDonald, Vice President Adam MacDonald, Secretary Katie Riley, Treasurer Nick Lapworth, and the student council members — Becky Rodger, Jodie Rose, Sara Berthiaume and Liz Perron, we have had an exciting and productive Sophomore year. In December, we held the annual Sophomore Semi-Formal and gave half the proceeds to Wayne Farrar, a graduate of 1993 who is recovering from cancer, and his family. In February, we had the Sophomore Ring Ceremony and Ring Dance — where all classes were invited to attend. We hope that in our future Junior year at Grafton High we can celebrate the same type of achievement we have reached this school year of 1993-1994.

FRESHMEN — CLASS OF 1997

We came to Grafton High with high expectations and many fears of what high school was really like. As we became familiar with the halls of GHS, most of our fears disappeared. By joining extracurricular activities such as sports, yearbook, newspaper, debate team, OM, and the theater group. Our freshman year is flying by faster than an upperclassman can say "FRESHMEN!" We the class of '97 leave the class of '98 with a piece of advice: the seniors don't tease you — THAT MUCH!!

He left us as he though he must.
He did not wait to say good-bye.
We loved him as we cherished him.
We'll never know if he could tell.
He was a burning wick in a shadowed, dreary world, and yet somehow he felt alone.

A last wish was to have told him how much I had always cared.
I could have touched him, hugged him, kissed his face.
He stole my chance to say good-bye.
But I will always love him, forgive him and cherish him . . . and will always remember the pain. by Annie Nichols

'94 WRAP UP

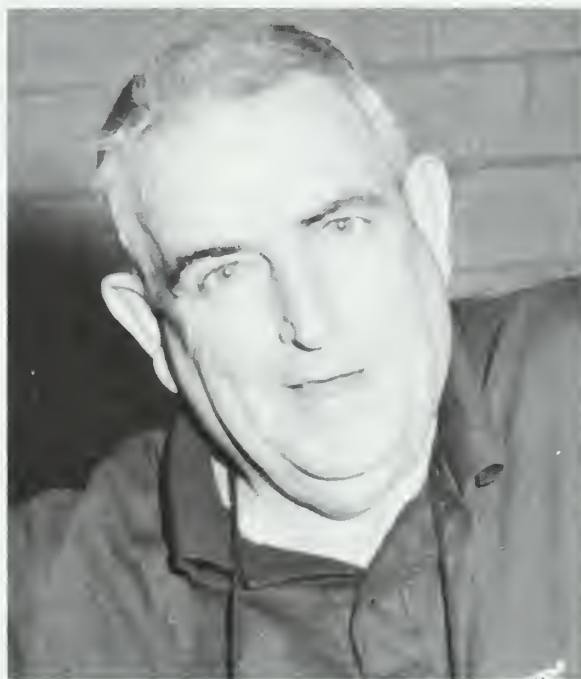

IN LOVING MEMORY OF . . .

Clayton Holland

Of all the teachers at Grafton High, Clayton "Skip" Holland was undoubtedly the most special. With his bright eyes and ready smile, he did more than make his science classes interesting and fun; he was able to perform successfully the dual role of teacher and friend. The impact he had on the students of Grafton High is immeasurable for it lies not only in the knowledge he instilled in his students but also in the good-nature and friendly personality he exemplified for all who knew him. Although cancer claimed his life at such a young age, it cannot erase the influence he had on his students, fellow teachers and friends throughout his career. We will miss you, Mr. Holland, and in our memory you will live forever.

WILLIAM COURNOYER

Sadly, William Cournoyer, known affectionately throughout the school as "Bill," passed away this year. As chief custodian, he had the opportunity to get to know the students of Grafton High on a level few other than faculty members could. In addition to his regular custodial duties, he had to deal with teenagers who were always making a mess of some part of the school and with student attempts to undermine his authority. In his characteristically gruff and sarcastic manner, though, Bill was able to keep students in their place while developing a friendly relationship with them. For this ability he will be remembered fondly for many years to come.

OM

This year's Odyssey of the Mind teams included: Structures: Mike Wolf, B.J. Tamulis, Kevin Dickert, Tony Frederico, Chris Migala, Chris Nichols, and Megan Bardsley; this team is coached by Mr. Hennessey and Mrs. Dadah. The Music Team: Janet Spence, Eric Spence, Chris Garrecht, Karen Gwozdowski, John Beaver, and Fiona Bedford. This team is coached by Sue Gwozdowski and Denise Spence. The Iliad Team: Darlene Mahoney, Matt Sawa, Chris Haddad, Christine Breecher, Aaron Spence, Abby Belding, and Katie Rintala. This team was coached by Mrs. Dadah and Mr. Hennessey. The Iliad finished first in a competition in Shrewsbury on March 26. Their problem was to select a scene from the Iliad and an actual event from the 20th century and show a transition between the two scenes while maintaining the presence of at least one god plus a work of art. Matt Sawa, alias Poseidon, may have to re-evaluate his career choice. The consensus is — he makes a great late night talk show host.

The structure team competed against a strong Shrewsbury team, which made a structure that held a whopping 990 pounds. Grafton's structure held 475. At the state finals on April 9 the GHS structure team came in third. The Iliad team came in sixth and the Music team came in eighth. Former GHS OMers, all World Final participants, were seen around the competition site. Former structure builder Ryan Bardsley was a volunteer who judged one of the spontaneous problems. Ryan's teammate Kevin Carlson was there to lend his support to Grafton's teams, and Jen Heck was taking pictures.

It's All Downhill For The Ski Club

This year's ski club, led by advisor Keary Naughton, was tremendously successful, thanks to the efforts of President Sara Gucwa, Vice-president Aaron Sherritt, and Secretary/Treasurer Chantale Duguay. Sara, along with several of the thirty-six registered members, demonstrated their love for skiing through perfect attendance over a scheduled eight-week program, which became a twelve-week program due to all the snow. The club welcomed four neophyte skiers this year, who rented and competed a six-lesson program with great success. The enthusiasm of this group and the increased membership (up 28% from last year) continue to encourage skiers!

ARTS & CRAFTS SHOW

In the beginning of June, the artists of Grafton High put on an Arts and Crafts Show. Throughout the past year the students worked diligently to complete their projects that were to be judged at the show. The time and effort that was exerted in each project made the decisions hard for the judges. If you ask me they all deserved FIRST.

P & F WEDDINGS

"Making Love out of NOthing at all"

The Wedding of Mandy and Daniel

Here comes the bride, the bride and the bride . . .
Much effort and commitment resulted in three "mock weddings" this year, that were as close to the real thing as they could be. Personal and Family Living is a course in which students learn about themselves, their peers and how to prepare for their futures. The weddings are the highlight of the course and this year's weddings, which stressed the significance of marriage, could not have been lovelier. Participants in the first wedding were: Jaime Merchant and Chuck Farrar, parents of the bride; Carrie Cardoza, mother of the groom; Kerri Clements, maid of honor, Steve Kirejczyk, best man;
Danyelle Warren and Liz
Hogan, bridesmaids; Jan
Rajchel and Ryan Trainor, ushers; Ed King, celebrant;
Mandy Turpin, bride; Dan Wenc, groom. Important contributions behind the scene were made by:
Jennifer Herbst, Rebecca
Boudreau, Mary Ponton,
Nikki Limoges, Sherry
Maynard, Jeff Cadrin, Lynn
Molinari, and Joanne Nichols.

P & F WEDDINGS

"AFTER ALL"

The second wedding stressed tradition and family. Keith Mitchell, a promising author, composed a touching letter to the bride from her deceased father, which was read during the ceremony. It featured Kelly Ormond, mother of the bride; Sarah LeBlanc, mother of the groom; Christie Carlo, grandmother of the bride; Holly Giles, grandmother of the groom; Erin Rudack, maid of honor; Jess Gatley, best man; Carole Kloczek and Tracy Duplisea, bridesmaids; Matt Rich and Scott Bacon, ushers; Danielle Gervias, flower girl; Jimmy Buccini, ring bearer; Kristina Magill, minister; Lisa Schonberg, bride and Keith Mitchell, groom. Important contributions were also made by Megan Flynn, Kellie Coonan, Nicole Lapierre, Jessica Vincent, Jamie Babowitch, Wendy Demars, Simeon Fleming, Krystal Lukas and Nicole Rondeau.

J.F.K. Memorial Auditorium was transformed into a garden, which was used as the setting for all three weddings. A reception complete with the introduction of the bridal party, the best man's toast, cutting of the cake, a first dance, and tossing of the bridal flowers followed each ceremony. Special thanks go to the food classes, Armando's and Pronuptia of Worcester, for providing outfits for the bride and grooms; and to Perrault's, Floral Elegance and Danielson Flowers for contributing to the festive atmosphere.

Grafton Girls Soccer

Do it for 90 minutes in the GRASS!

The Grafton Girls Soccer Team has had another outstanding season. This year the team received 9 new players and with the help from the returning players they quickly got them working. Expressing their skill in each game, the girls soccer team had 15-2-2 record — good enough to be in the districts. In the districts Grafton played Groton Dunstable winning 7-0 and Hudson losing 1-0. Leaving the final record 16-3-2. Once again the girls soccer has shown their "Hot Stuff" and we wish all the luck to the girls in the future.

This year the boys soccer team was off to a shaky start but they never let that get in the way of their excellent soccer skills. Each game, no matter what the outcome, they always poured their hearts into the game. The boys team pulled it together by the end of the season; however, they ended with 6-9-3 season record. Lucky for them the team does not lose any players, but will gain more. Good Luck in the future, boys!

Field Hockey

Chicks and Sticks . . . The Ultimate Mix!!

Mama, mama can't you see
How Grafton scores that victory!
They may be girls,
but they're real tough
Armed with sticks,
they show their stuff!

In '93 the Grafton field hockey was led by Senior tri-captains Christie Carlo, Cristina Samsel, and Michele Young. All of the girls held their heads high through a rough season of five wins and seven losses. The highlights included two close games with Auburn and defeating Prouty by one goal thanks to the outstanding job of Senior goalie, Jessica Jacques. With a little luck, we could have had a winning season, but we always had fun and the memories will last forever! Good luck to everyone next year, especially to the seniors going on to play field hockey in college.

BOYS AND GIRLS CROSS-COUNTRY

Teams Lose Leading Seniors

The Boys' and Girls' Cross-Country teams completed another year faced with many injuries. Despite this, some of our strong runners, like Chuck Farrar and Chris Lapworth, helped to lead the team by placing in the meets. Kate Noonan, a newcomer to the girls' team, helped by becoming the team's top runner. The team worked hard this year allowing Chuck to finish his four-year career at the top. Through all the injuries and disappointments, Mr. Coleman's dedication and encouragement helped us to maintain our high spirits and pull the extra mile.

Above: Chuck Farrar shows his flexibility while leading the team in stretching exercises. He prepares for another meet to take first place for the fourth consecutive year.

While pigskins flew through the air Grafton's team was always there! Although our team wasn't the best We'll always finish above the rest!

Despite our record of 0-10, none of these individuals ever gave up and always tried their best. More importantly, these players played a sport and stayed academically eligible to play the entire season. The team may not have won a game, but each one of them deserves credit for trying their best every weekend. Hopefully with hard work, next year's team will show great improvements.

BASEBALL

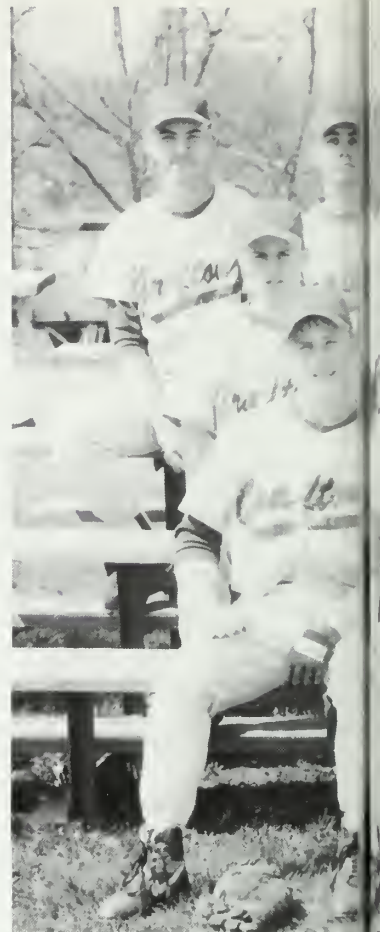

Go Indians!

After a couple of postponements, the 1994 Varsity Baseball season began on April 8. The team opened up at home with an 8-0 victory over David Prouty. In the second game, the Indians improved to a record of two wins by defeating Leicester 5-4. The Indians dropped their first game of the year on April 12 against Holy Name. The team continued on the season led by seniors Steve Kirejczyk, Matt Estaphan, and Mike Joncas. The Indians increased their win streak with a 7-4 victory on the road against Auburn. The boys finished up the season with a record of 7 wins and 13 losses. The team is fairly young with only 3 graduating seniors. The boys should be very good the next couple of years. We wish the best of luck to the seniors and great success to the team next year.

Liz, Kerri, and Jaime ALWAYS stick together.

- I, Kelly J. Atchue, leave the one and only #11 basketball jersey to the next privileged player because with this cherished shirt you can play your heart out!
- I, Karen Brady, leave Paul Paldino's phone number and address to Carole Klocek and Danielle Renaud to fight over in the years to come.
- I, Carrie Cardoza, leave a supply of hairbrushes to Pete Rawson to make up for the ones that I ripped up in study.
- I, Christie Carlo, leave a key to my house to Gretchen Jordan so she doesn't have to climb on my roof.
- I, Tricia Cochran, leave the Hockey Pep Squad's challenges to Meg Bardsley.
- I, Kim Cote, leave Genesis P-Orridge to Colleen Canavan because without him she's powerless against the wizard.
- I, Amy Cummins, leave all the napkins in the world to my lunch table because they are slob.
- I, Wendy Demars, leave my sister Andrea to Mr. Larivee because she will annoy him just as much as I did.
- I, Jennifer Germain, leave the lunchroom bathroom to Carrie-Ann, Michelle, and lots of others because they need somewhere to go to escape from teachers.
- I, Holly Giles, leave my book reports and my great driving skills to Jon Kiesiner, Matt Erhartic, and Barry Whitney because they will never make it through high school without them.
- I, Liz Hogan, leave a homeroom that wears hats and leaves before the writing to Miss Pepka.
- I, Lynn Molinari, leave my #12 basketball shirt to Mary Fantini.
- I, Jon Therrien, leave the blood, sweat, tears, and victory of hockey to any deserving player because they should experience it too.
- I, Jennifer Turcotte, leave "the catwalk" along with a sleeping bag and pillow to Gretchen Jordan because it will be her home forever!
- I, Kelly Williams, leave Syracuse tickets to Jess Gatley and Jason Erminelli.
- We, Lisa and Kristina, leave a new period six math class to Mrs. Langas because we know how much she'll miss us. We leave a rubber ducky to Mr. B because we don't want him to be "LONELY" next year.
- We, the debate team, leave Mr. Schoos, some hair and a ticket to Boca Ratan.
- We, the Advanced Environmental Girls, leave all our happy smiles to Mrs. Rector because she'll never have another bunch of girls like us.

SENIOR CLASS OF 1994

A single tear rolls down my face, my soul is lost and cold.

*Trying to mend my broken heart,
my memories seem so old.*

If only I could change the present to the past, then just maybe these days would last.

*I never thought these years would end,
each one of you has become a great friend.*

*Saying good-bye is never easy to do, so don't think of it as losing the old . . .
but as gaining the new.*

I thank you all but it's time to bid farewell, to say our final goodbyes and wish each other well.

*So continue on as you've done before,
but NEVER forget our class,
the class of '94!!!*

Good Luck To All

May you be blessed with the courage to accomplish all you can,

To set no limitations and pursue your every plan,

May you learn to appreciate each trait that you possess,

To know your potential will lead you to success,

May you be filled with confidence and given self esteem and,

Be blessed with a future that fulfills your every dream.
